

Inactive Student Organizations

Last Updated On: Sep 12, 2024

Purpose

This document lists inactive student organizations that the Office of Student Life once recognized but are not currently registered due to failure to complete annual requirements. Students can re-activate these student orgs by completing the New Student Org Process. To begin this process, students must attend a Student Org Information Session in the first month of the academic semester.

Eligible to Re-Activate in Fall 2024

Name of Student Organization	Brief Description
Agape Graduate Christian Fellowship	Agapé Graduate Christian Fellowship shares with graduate and professional students the message and power of God’s love through worship, prayer, discipleship, and fellowship.
Amnesty International GWU	A student-led chapter of Amnesty International at the George Washington University. We advocate for human rights and dignity for all.
Arts, Design, and Fashion Society	Join us for a creative and fun experience at GW with friends and members. Learn more about your artistic side and discover new ways of expressing yourself.
ASEZ: Save the Earth from A to Z	ASEZ is a group of university student volunteers from the Church of God, who act to solve practical problems around the world. People are suffering from disasters such as earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, terrorist attacks, wars, and climate catastrophes.
Be The Match on Campus	Be The Match ® manages the largest and most diverse bone marrow registry in the world. Our chapter of Be The Match On Campus helps gain potential donors, as well as raise awareness for blood cancers/diseases for which the only cure is a transplant.
Bengali Student Association	The main purpose of the Bengali Students’ Association will be to form a united

	community for Bengali and Bangladeshi students at GW to come together through shared cultural understanding. The BSA will aim to promote greater knowledge about and awareness.
Cherry Bomb Press	Cherry Bomb Press is a self-published, non-commercial, creative print work(AKA a zine!). Our mission is to create a space where photographers can collaborate and highlight their fine arts work editorially, while still getting credit for their work.
Child and Adolescent Committee	The Child and Adolescent Committee was organized by members of the Professional Psychology Program (PsyD) within The George Washington University in order to foster the education and training of students with regard to child and adolescent psychology.
Classics and Archaeology Club	The GW Classics &amp; Archaeology Club is formed to encourage and create community among students interested in classical studies and archaeology, as well as to promote the appreciation of ancient civilizations.
College Next Door	College Next Door is a long-term student-to-student mentorship program that provides high school underclassmen with continuous and adaptive support and guidance from university underclassmen who have the recent experiences and developed passions to provide a tangible and sustainable route to curating a high schooler's talent and success.
Collegiate Sales Society of GW	The organization will help students learn about the sales profession, become trained in sales techniques, network with industry sales leaders, and earn sales internships and full-time jobs.
Corean Undergraduate Business Organization	As the Corean Undergraduate Business Organization, our mission is to increase a student's awareness of their strength and weaknesses and assist in developing professional skills to utilize within their career and university.

D.C. Gamma Chapter of Pi Mu Epsilon	D.C. Gamma Chapter of Pi Mu Epsilon is The George Washington University chapter of Pi Mu Epsilon, Inc.. The chapter was first established in 1966. Pi Mu Epsilon is a non-secret national honor society incorporated in 1914 whose purpose is the promotion and recognition of scholarly activity in the mathematical sciences.
Divine Solidarity	We are Divine Solidarity! We seek to bring the forces of religion and socialism together to push for a better world. We look at suffering in the world through the lens of socialism and solve them through what our religions call us to do.
DREAMS	DREAMS is a service-learning student organization at The George Washington University in Washington, DC dedicated to supporting underserved black communities in planning for and achieving their dreams.
George Washington Crypto	GW Crypto aims to spread the knowledge of cryptocurrencies, and blockchain-related technologies, to aid students and staff in the exchange and utilization of cryptocurrencies in data transfers as well as their impacts on the global economy.
George Washington Emergency Management Club	GW EMC will provide students with an interest in emergency response and preparedness opportunities to expose themselves in the field before going into the real-world. The club will have many activities ranging from mock disaster situations to working with the local DC Community Emergency Response Team (CERT).
George Washington University Rowing Club	GWRC is committed to bringing competitive and recreational rowing opportunities to the GW student body. The Club is a non-exclusive organization offering rowing instruction for all GW students with varying levels of physical ability.

Girls Who Code College Loop @ George Washington University	College Loops are about more than programming, we are on-campus organizations offering monthly challenges focusing on honing computer science skills and engaging students to take action, collaborate, and create with one another.
Green GW	Our mission is to unite the student body, administration, and faculty alike to create a "greener" campus while simultaneously increasing awareness of environmental issues.
GW COMPASS	The mission of COMPASS is to provide a community of professional support for graduate students by hosting networking engagements, fostering mentee-mentor relationships, and highlighting career opportunities for post-graduate life.
GW Cyber	GW Cyber is a student-led technical organization at The George Washington University dedicated to educating the student body about securing systems- from computer hardware to networks, to software- as well as threat intelligence and policy debates
GW Feminist Student Union	The GW Feminist Student Union is actively committed to fighting all forms of oppression, including but not limited to race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, class, and ability. We define feminism as the political theory and practice to free all people.
GW Greenhouse Club	The Greenhouse Club was created to bring together plant lovers at GW who want to get involved with the Harlan Greenhouse and experience the plant community in the DMV area.
GW iGEM	GW iGEM supports a research team that competes in the iGEM competition to solve world problems and advance synthetic biology. iGEM members work to raise support for innovative solutions and introduce synthetic biology to the local DC community.
GW One Tent Health	GW One Tent Health is a chapter of One Tent

	Health based in DC, an HIV screening and prevention non-profit working to end the unrelenting HIV epidemic in DC using tent-based screening in high-risk communities.
GW Student-Athlete Advisory Committee	The mission of the National Collegiate Athletic Association Student-Athlete Advisory Committee is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by promoting opportunity, protecting student-athlete welfare, and fostering a positive student-athlete image.
GW Taekwondo Organization	The mission of the GW Taekwondo Organization is to provide opportunities to learn the fundamental techniques of Taekwondo by creating a safe and welcoming environment with a focus on women's empowerment and gender equality.
GW Women of Color	GW Women of Color is an inclusive organization that unites and celebrates the diverse racial identities and cultures of women of color. Our mission is to empower and support women of color as they navigate through college and beyond.
GW Young America's Foundation	We are the conservative movement at GWU. On campus, we put together numerous events to advocate for things such as individual freedom, a strong national defense, free enterprise, and traditional values.
GWU Jackie and Rachel Robinson Society	The Jackie Robinson Society is an organization dedicated to preserving the memory and spreading the legacy of Jackie Robinson. The organization sponsors and co-sponsors speakers, forums, discussions and participates in community service projects that associate Robinson's name with good deeds.
Hippo Helpers	Hippo Helpers seeks to foster collaboration among GWU students majoring in STEM fields with the goal of providing DC high school and middle school students, particularly those in underserved areas, with quality tutoring in STEM subjects.

History of Business Association	HBA is an organization that aims to facilitate the learning of historical ideas, movements, principles, people, and places in the history of business in the world. There will be weekly events and hopefully, we can attain thoughtful conversation.
Institute of Transportation Engineers Student Chapter	The goal of the Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE) Student Chapter is to introduce students to the transportation profession and supplement their classroom and laboratory experience through various programs and activities.
Interfaith Council at the George Washington University	The GW Interfaith Council (GWIC) is dedicated to promoting awareness and appreciation of diverse religious, non-religious, spiritual, and secular beliefs and practices through education, advocacy, dialogue, and service.
International City/County Managers Association - GW Chapter	The GW student chapter of the International City/County Management Association, which develops individuals to serve in management and administrative roles in a variety of local governments. Members work on professional development and networking skills.
International Justice Mission	IJM is the largest non-profit organization in the world to end slavery. The organization as a whole rescues women and children in different parts of the world, aids in their recovery, and puts slave owners behind bars.
International Progress Platform	International Progress Platform (IPP) is an international association that aims at helping underprivileged people around the world. IPP is initiated by students from George Washington University, Dartmouth College, and Brown University. Members of IPP are enthusiastic about sharing their knowledge on poverty reduction, proposing problems of which their homelands encounter, and exploring insightful solutions.
Kappa Pi	Kappa Pi is a co-ed art honor

	society/fraternity in which students can express themselves creatively and form friendships based on their mutual passion for the arts.
Korean Cultural Organization	By providing special programming, events, and constituency service, the Korean Cultural Organization (KCO) hopes to unite and serve the Korean-American community as well as their allies at The George Washington University. KCO strives to educate the GW community about the unique Korean and Korean-American culture through programming and special events.
Korean International Studies Organization	KISO is an official student organization of the GW created for students who are interested in international affairs, politics, and current events. A primary goal of KISO is to support successful academic and social acclamation of Korean students on campus
Kuwaiti Student Society	The goal of the Kuwaiti Student Society is to connect Kuwaitis enrolled at GW. To this end, we will host events and meetings to create opportunities for Kuwaiti students to build relationships and support networks and retain a connection to Kuwait.
Leaders in Arts and Culture	LAC aims to foster a community for art history majors. A place where we can appreciate all the culture the world has to offer, but in a relaxed setting. LAC also hopes to create professional connections for students to utilize post-graduation.
MediaFile	MediaFile is a student-run media critique news outlet. It covers "news about the news." There are four primary news sections at MediaFile, including Politics, International, Industry, and Opinions. MediaFile also produces podcasts and other multimedia.
Melior Futuri	Our organization is named Melior Futuri which in Latin translates to, "a better future" and accurately, yet broadly, describes our goal. Our mission is to help the youth across Latin America to create a better future for all.

Milken Undergraduate Student Association	MUSA is the undergraduate association that represents all Milken Institute School of Public Health majors and minors. We plan fun events and offer opportunities for individuals in these areas of study to create a community within the school and to provide learning experiences outside of the classroom.
No Labels at The George Washington University	No Labels is a national movement of Democrats, Republicans, and independents dedicated to a new politics of problem-solving.
One for the World	One for the World is here to connect GW undergraduate and graduate students with the world's most effective charities so that you can make a greater impact on ending extreme poverty in the world today.
Organization of Slavic Studies	We are a student-run organization dedicated to getting GWU students involved in all matters relating to Slavic politics, language, culture, and history.
Persian Languages Club	The Persian Languages Club serves the GW's community of Persian languages (Persian, Dari, Pashto, Kurdish, etc.) learners and speakers as an outlet for practicing these languages and learning more about the cultures associated with them.
Progressive Student Union	The mission of the Progressive Student Union is to organize around student and worker issues at GWU and in DC. Along with a coalition of workers, graduate students, and faculty, we run various campaigns to demand better conditions for all.
Real Estate Investment & Development Organization	REIDO was established to complement the Real Estate Concentration offered through the GW MBA program. It aims to further familiarize students who have a common interest in real estate investment and development with real estate issues and organizations in the Washington DC area.
Relay For Life of George Washington University	Relay For Life is the American Cancer Society's signature fundraising event. This

	event represents the hope that those lost to cancer will never be forgotten, that those who face cancer will be supported and that one day cancer will be eliminated.
Sigma Alpha Lambda - GWU Chapter	Sigma Alpha Lambda is a National Leadership and Honors Organization dedicated to developing the individual and serving our campus and community. The mission of Sigma Alpha Lambda is to recognize members for academic achievement, to engage members in service, and to develop members for leadership.
Society for Biomaterials	The George Washington University's chapter of the national organization founded in 1974 with the mission of connecting academic, healthcare, governmental, and business affairs through scientific collaboration and education.
Society of Professional Journalists	We are a university chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists: a national organization dedicated to preserving the first amendment, exemplifying journalistic ethical standards, and building sustainable relationships between the public and media.
Students for DC Statehood	Students for D.C. Statehood advocates for establishing Washington, DC as the 51st state so that its people can have equal representation in Congress, control of their local laws and budget, and achieve racial justice and equality.
Taiwanese American Student Association	The Taiwanese American Student Association was established to unite students of all backgrounds at the George Washington University who demonstrate an interest in and enthusiasm about Taiwanese culture and the Mandarin language.
Tech Hunters	The mission and long-term goal of the organization is to create a collaborative environment for all university students interested in the field of Computer Science and Technology by holding knowledge sharing sessions by students, professors, and

	industry
The Cheese Club	The Cheese Club at George Washington University is an organization that plans and hosts cheese tasting events. Our events are social gatherings centered around expanding our cheese loving community on campus as well as members' knowledge about cheeses.
The George Washington Student Research Institute	The Student Research Institute at The George Washington University is a student-run think tank that conducts ethical, high-quality research and produce other helpful content to better inform the community on issues facing GWU students and the community.
The George Washington University Polo Club	We are a college Polo sport's organization. Our purpose is to participate in and promote equestrian activities, specifically regarding to the game of Polo. We promote horsemanship, leadership, and teamwork in a competitive form.
The GW College Diabetes Network	GW CDN is a group of students who work to support people on campus with or affected by diabetes, fundraise for diabetes research, educate peers about diabetes, facilitate service projects in the DMV area, and advocate for lower diabetes drug costs.
The Law & Policy Society	The L&P Society provides a forum for the examination and discussion of major issues facing our nation and world with the goal of determining how these issues can be addressed through applied laws and policies.
The Politics of Media & Culture Organization	In this organization, we hope to meet to discuss movies, tv shows, books, articles, and other forms of cultural or political media. We are passionate about media and hope to attract students who desire an outlet to discuss culturally relevant content.
Toastmaster International	Toastmasters International is a world leader in communication and leadership development. Our membership is more than 332,000 members. Members improve their speaking and leadership skills by attending one of the 15,400 clubs in 135 countries that make up our global network of meeting locations.

Tourism For Tomorrow	The mission of Tourism for Tomorrow is to further the educational and professional development of its members while fostering community among students, staff, alumni, faculty as well as industry professionals, thought leaders, and trend setters.
Transfer Student Organization	The Transfer Student Organization is a student led initiative that strives to reach out and engage Transfer Students, on an academic, extra-curricular, and social level at The George Washington University.
Turning Point USA	Turning Point USA educates students about the importance of fiscal responsibility, free markets, and limited government.
Ubuntu	UBUNTU will advocate for human rights and shed light on global political developments across the world. Our objective is to create a community-driven by a passion for diverse values through the power of writing.
Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Undergraduate Student Association	The WGSS Student Association is a space for WGSS majors, minors, and other interested students to meet and create community outside of the classroom. The Association will use bi-weekly meetings, special events, and off-campus activities to put what we're learning into practice and create space for active feminist theorizing.
Young Democratic Socialists of America	Young Democratic Socialists of America is the youth and student section of the Democratic Socialists of America, and a national organization of recognized campus chapters and several hundred activists.

Eligible to Re-Activate in Spring 2025

Name of Student Organization	Brief Description
Alliance for Student Advocacy	The Alliance for Student Advocacy, formerly

	the Roosevelt Network, is a student policy and advocacy organization that engages students and communities in solutions-oriented progressive activism that empowers their ideas for change.
Art n Soul	Art n Soul wants to bring artists together, creating a safe space to build relationships; offering artistic knowledge and technique to students who may not be offered such opportunities under their current line of study, and encouraging the magnification of art in the local community is our biggest goal.
Bringing Underrepresented Research Scientists Together	The purpose of this organization is to promote equity and (social and physical) protection for oppressed and underrepresented graduate students in basic/biomedical sciences through service, political education, and professional development.
Clearminds	Clearminds focuses on the topics of Friendships, Relationships, and Sex. We provide information about these topics through resources, education, and well-being. We have weekly meetings to discuss a variety of topics under this field.
Coffee Chat	Coffee Chat is a student ran organization with a focus on unifying the GW campus as a whole through networking. We plan to unite many of the clubs and students around campus in order to create opportunities not present before.
Dominican Organized Politics	The purpose of DOP is to discuss and analyze the political climate of the Dominican Republic in a social, economic, cultural, and humanitarian context. This implies constructing an organized representation of Dominican students in the George Washington
Finance and Investments Club	Getting a job on Wall Street is hard; joining FIC and getting to know the ins and outs of the financial world makes it easier. FIC holds bi-weekly discussions to go over market news and technical finance skills as well as a number of one-off events.

Game Development Club	The Game Development Club of George Washington University exists as a platform for students interested in game development, to discuss and collaborate on the creation of video games.
George Washington Chinese Cultural Association	George Washington Chinese Cultural Association is a diverse and inclusive community of students who share a passion for exploring and celebrating the multifaceted aspects of Chinese culture.
GW Anthropology Peer Advocates	The organization provides support to students, post-doctoral researchers, and faculty in the Anthropology Department using a peer-to-peer model to cultivate a departmental culture that practices and incorporates values of diversity, equity, and justice.
GW Rec Sports	Goalplus aims to bring people together using organized recreational sports activities. Weekly and monthly activities will incorporate core features that align conceptually with critical aspects of community development with implications for access, social inclusion, and engagement. Our events will be designed to keep people active and resilient.
GW Society of Asian Scientists and Engineers	SASE is dedicated to advancing Asian heritage scientists and engineers in education and employment so that they can achieve their full potential. SASE also encourages members to contribute to the enhancement of their communities.
GW Urban Studies Initiative	GWUSI is a place for GW folx to nerd out about cities, imagine what they'll look like in the future, educate, organize, and get angry at people who want to kick poor people out of them.
GWSPH NACCHO Student Chapter	GWSPH NACCHO Student Chapter is a cohort of students interested in the field of local governmental public health. Students can network with local health professionals, attend events, and participate in other activities that advance the mission of NACCHO.

GWU CPS Cyber Club	Cooperate with your fellow students, learn from industry leaders, and volunteer to bring Cybersecurity to the community. Gain insightful business and technical cybersecurity knowledge outside the classroom, and compete against other Universities
GWU Financial Literacy Initiative	The Financial Literacy Initiative was founded with the goal of helping the GW undergraduate student body improve their financial literacy skills through educational lectures, guest speakers, and other events. FLI aims to better prepare GW students to manage their personal finances now and after graduation, and to inform students of the various financial services that are available to them.
Hacky Sack Club	Hacky Sack Club's goal is to foster an interest in the sport of hacky sack, promote camaraderie amongst students, and better our skills and abilities thereof.
League of United Latin American Citizens	GW LULAC is a Latino-based advocacy organization that promotes student advocacy participation in both Washington, DC, and on GW's campus on behalf of the Latino community.
MZZ Ventures at the George Washington University	MZZ Ventures is a student-run undergraduate consulting group that works with the goal of providing pro-bono consultation to startups in developing countries and emerging markets. MZZ Ventures has worked to develop startups in over 10 regions.
oSTEM @ GWU	Out in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (oSTEM) is a professional society with the goal of empowering LGBTQA+ people in the STEM community.
Persist GW	We promote progressive ideals at GW

	through advocacy and campaign work. We focus on issues related to women, BIPOC, and LGBTQ+ rights. We aim to achieve greater justice through community building and education-based advocacy.
Polish Culture Club	GW's first-ever Polish Culture Club aims to foster a close-knit community on GW's campus and share Polish culture with all members of the GW community.
Saudi Students Association	The Saudi Students Association is a group of students getting together to introduce the Saudi culture to their new community and to help each other to live, adapt, and get the most out of their journey here at GWU.
She's the First	She's the First GW supports young female scholars from low-income countries who will be the first in their families to graduate high school and trains students everywhere to be global citizens.
Software Engineering Career Club	The goal of my club is to assist aspiring software engineers to obtain internships to help propel them into this field through resume seminars tailored to SWE, leetcode (technical interviews) seminars, and more!
Speakers of the House: The GW Spoken Word Collective	Speakers of the House is GW's only spoken word collective. Founded in 2014, our mission is to provide a supportive space and creative outlet on campus for writers and performers of ALL levels, as well as to promote awareness and activism through art.
StackedGW	At Stacked-GW, we advocate for the issues impacting our generation. We engage leaders and experts for meaningful discussions to drive solutions that will benefit our future and those of future generations.
Take Back The Tap	Take Back The Tap GWU is an initiative to transition from using single use plastic water bottles to reusable, refillable bottles. We aim to educate students of the dangers of plastic pollution and advocate for more refill stations on campus to promote a more sustainable

	GW.
The American Sign Language Club	The George Washington American Sign Language Club provides an opportunity for students interested in sharing their love for ASL, learning ASL, and spreading awareness on Deaf culture and history.
THE BLACK ACE MAGAZINE	THE BLACK ACE is a publication for and by Black students. ACE is dedicated to telling Black stories and providing an uncensored space for Black expression, joy, and aesthetic.
The GW Political Review	GW's town square for political nerds. Write op-eds about politics. Only publication on campus in which any student can write their political opinions. You can write for us, no matter your grade, major, identity, or beliefs.
The Irish-American Heritage Society	The Irish American Heritage Society was founded to help foster a community for students with an interest in Irish history and culture at George Washington University.
The Literature Club	The literature club hosts a book club twice a month, and a creative writing club every week. The club will host workshops and readings of students' works, as well as help students explore new writing styles and genres.
The Priestly Magazine	The entertainment and pop culture publication here at GW, providing a space for students of all academic backgrounds to write and discuss the most popular movies, music, fashion, and trends of the day.
UMR RELIEF	The purpose of supporting marginalized groups in both local and global communities through leadership development, awareness raising, youth mobilization, community outreach, and fundraising to support UMR HQ programs.
Undergraduate International Business Association	The purpose of the International Business Association is to advance our members' knowledge of the academic, cultural, and networking opportunities in the field of international business.

Veg Out	Veg Out is a community of students interested in veganism and the issues that intersect with animal agriculture. We strive to make plant-based eating more accessible to the GW community and delve into issues such as animal ethics and sustainability.
Venezuelan Perspectives GWU	Venezuelan Perspectives GWU is the George Washington University chapter of Venezuelan Perspectives. The organization's mission is to provide a space for students and young professionals with a Venezuelan background or interest in the country to debate ideas and raise public awareness of the present state of Venezuela.